Lab Assistant Needed

If interested in working as a lab assistant in the DENSO Climate Control Education and Research Lab for Prof. Ratts. Contact information provided below.

Lab Assistant Responsibilities

- Construct and run (i) climate control experiments and/or (i) heat exchanger tests.
- Enjoy working with your hands on an engineering project.
- Work a minimum of 4 hours a week.

Qualifications

- Majoring in Mechanical Engineering.
- Machining experience useful but not necessary.
- Ability to work independently, although close guidance will be provided.

Benefits

- Improve engineering experience.
- Advance engineering and research experience.
- Opportunity to work with faculty.
- Develop references for resume.

Professor E. Ratts
1250 EC
Mechanical Engineering Department
ratts@umich.edu